THANK YOU!
From one worker to another.

Thank you sincerely for the work that you do!

As working people, we don't always feel we're appreciated. Owners/employers really should appreciate us more – without our unflagging dedication to their businesses, they wouldn't be able to live off of the labor of others. Have you thought about the fact that the people you work for systematically confiscate all the wealth that you create, and return to you only the wage? That's why they are able to become wealthy, but you as a worker have an upper limit on earnings. We need to change this system, and we can do that only by joining together.

We're the Industrial Workers of the World (IWW), a union for all workers. This organization is controlled by us, the rank and file. We're fiercely dedicated to economic justice, and we fight for the rights of workers everywhere, every day.
